

William and Mary/Future of Minority Studies Colloquium Program:
Subjugated Histories, Decolonizing Practices

Thursday February 24, 2011

Precolloquium Opportunities: 201 Blow Hall

3:30-4:30 "The Social Science of African American Literature and Vice Versa"?
William "Sandy" Darity, Duke University

5:00-6:00 Quilting Black History from Frederick Douglass to Toni Morrison
Riché Richardson, Cornell University

Colloquium Opening

Friday February 25, 2011 [All events at the Sadler Campus Center, Chesapeake AB]

9:30-10:00 Welcome and Opening Remarks
John Riofrio "Rio", Assistant Professor of Modern Languages and Literature
College of William and Mary
Kathleen Slevin, Vice Provost of Academic Affairs
College of William and Mary

10:00-11:45 Plenary Session
Moderator: Michael Hames-García, Professor of Ethnic Studies
University of Oregon
Linda Martín Alcoff, Professor of Philosophy
Hunter College and CUNY Graduate Center
Silvio Torres-Saillant, Professor of English and Latin American and Latino Studies
Syracuse University

11:45-1:15 Lunch on your own

1:15-2:30 Tenure Dossier Workshop
Anne Charity-Hudley, Associate Professor of English, Linguistics and Community Studies
College of William and Mary
Sandy Darity, Professor of Economics, Public Policy and African American Studies
Duke University

2:30-4:00 Critical Feminist Pedagogies: Decolonizing Knowledge within the Classroom
Agency, Feminist Praxis, Difference: Missing Intersections and the Quandary of Women's Studies in the U.S. Academy
Khanum Shaikh, University of California Presidential Postdoctoral Fellow
Department of Women's and Gender Studies and History, UC- Santa Barbara

Esha De, Visiting Professor Department of Dance, Critical Dance Studies Program Ph.D.
University of California- Riverside

Social justice pedagogies and women of color feminisms
Sylvanna Falcón, Assistant Professor of Latin American and Latino Studies
University of California- Santa Cruz

Rethinking the "West" in Western Civ and the Practical Consequences of Elevating Feminist Knowledge
Sharmila Lodhia, Assistant Professor Women's and Gender Studies
Santa Clara University

Friday February 25, 2011 [Sadler Campus Center, Chesapeake AB]

4:00-4:30 Coffee Break with Snacks

4:30-6:30 The Only Good Indian: A Conversation in Three Parts
Arica L. Coleman, Assistant Professor Black American Studies
University of Delaware

Buck Woodard, Ph. D. Candidate Department of Anthropology
College of William and Mary

Danielle Moretti-Langholtz, Research Assistant Professor of Anthropology
College of William and Mary

Chief Lynette Allston, The Nottoway Indian Tribe of Virginia, Inc.

** All events are free and open to the public

Saturday February 26, 2011 [all events at the Williamsburg Hospitality House]

9:15-10:45 8 Conversations about Race
Hazel Markus, Davis Brack Professor in the Behavioral Sciences and Professor of Psychology
Stanford University
Paula Moya, Associate Professor of English
Stanford University
Respondent: Michael Blakey, National Endowment for the Humanities Professor
College of William and Mary

10:45-12:15 Hidden in Plain Sight: Colonial Histories in American Education
Moderator: Jeremy Stoddard, Assistant Professor of Curriculum and Instruction
College of William and Mary

Commodifying Spanish: Two-way immersion and interest-convergence

Martha Irene Martinez, PhD Candidate Department of Educational Leadership
University of Oregon

The People's Universities: An Anti-Colonial Critique

Nana Osei-Kofi, Assistant Professor of Educational Leadership and Policy Studies
Iowa State University

Is Major College Football a Ponzi Scheme for African American Males?

Jamel K. Donner, Assistant Professor of Curriculum and Instruction
College of William and Mary

12:15-2:00 Lunch on your own

2:00-3:45 Pedagogies of Death and Dignity: What and How is Arizona Teaching the Nation
(and the World) about Legalized Dehumanization and Dreams of Freedom
Moderator: Jennifer Bickham-Mendez, Associate Professor of Sociology
College of William and Mary

Border Pedagogies and the 'Commonsense' of Arizona's Southwestern Strategy

Alan Gómez, Assistant Professor in the School of Justice and Social Inquiry
Arizona State University

A People's Guide to Maricopa County

Wendy Cheng, Assistant Professor in the School of Social Transformation
Arizona State University

Border Crossings and the Legacy of Sexual Conquest

Michelle Tellez, Assistant Professor of the Humanities, Arts and Cultural Studies

Arizona State University
Drug War Requiem: The Deadly Consequences of Privatized and State-Sponsored Terror for the U.S.-Mexico Border and Beyond
Alexis Mazón, Center for Labor Research and Education: University of California-Berkeley

3:45-4:45 Coffee Break with snacks

4:45-6:30 Legislating the Protection of Human Rights

Moderator: Claire Decoteau, Assistant Professor of Sociology
University of Illinois- Chicago

Liz Philipose, Associate Professor of Women's Studies
California State University- Long Beach

Silvia Tandeciarz, Associate Professor of Hispanic Studies
College of William and Mary

Christie Warren, Professor of the Practice of International and Comparative Law
College of William and Mary

6:30-6:45 Closing Remarks

Teresa Longo, Dean for Educational Policy and Associate Professor of Hispanic Studies
College of William and Mary

** All events are free and open to the public

9:30-12:00 Colloquium Celebration Dance at Cozy Lounge (in the Bavarian Garden Restaurant)